

STOP PRESS!!!

After having been sidelined with injury for the whole NZ season, this awesome young lady makes her comeback on arguably the biggest stage of them all!

At her first race since November, Briana Irving absolutely smoked the field in her Open Women beach sprint to take the gold and then battled her way through round after round of flags to come 5th overall!

We're so proud of you Bri, way to return to the podium!!

